

Charleston County News Release

Release Number: 2886

Date: June 10, 2008

County Council Holds Neighborhood Meeting on Incinerator

Meeting to be held at 6:30 p.m. on Tuesday, June 24, at Gethsemane Community Center on Beacon Street in North Charleston.

Charleston County Council will hold a neighborhood meeting in North Charleston on Tuesday, June 24, to share and gather information about the County's Waste to Energy Facility for Municipal Solid Waste. The facility is commonly known as the "incinerator."

The meeting will be held at 6:30 p.m. at Gethsemane Community Center (2449 Beacon Street; Charleston, SC 29405).

For anyone wishing to make comments during the meeting, a sign-up sheet will be available beginning at 6 p.m. at the meeting location.

Staff from Charleston County's Solid Waste and Recycling Department will give a brief presentation about the Waste to Energy Facility.

Following the presentation, the public will have an opportunity to provide feedback to Charleston County Council and staff members.

Those who cannot attend the meeting but would like to submit comments on this topic can send them to the Clerk of Council, Beverly Craven, by e-mail to: bcraven@charlestoncounty.org, or by mail to: Beverly Craven, Clerk of Council; 4045 Bridge View Drive; N. Charleston, SC 29405.

Visit www.charlestoncounty.org for other news and up-to-date information relating to Charleston County Government.