

Charleston County News Release

Release Number: 2933
Date: October 16, 2008

Nov. 1 is Green Initiative Night with the Stingrays Hockey Team

Charleston County's Solid Waste and Recycling Department is sponsoring the South Carolina Stingrays' Green Initiative Night on Saturday, Nov. 1. The game against the Florida Everblades starts at 7:05 p.m. at the North Charleston Coliseum (5001 Coliseum Drive; N. Charleston, SC 29418).

Green Initiative Night will include the following:

- Charleston County Recycling will have a table set up inside the coliseum where staff will be available to talk about the County's recycling programs
- Reusable bags will be thrown to Stingrays fans at different times during the game
- Charleston County Recycling will sponsor the in-game promotions
- Fans will be chosen to play games that relate to recycling and litter control

The Green Initiative Night at the South Carolina Stingrays game will also feature a variety of other businesses and organizations that promote a more environmental and sustainable lifestyle.

"The Stingrays Green Initiative Night is going to be a great event for Charleston County Recycling to be a part of," said Theresa Martin, Marketing Specialist for Charleston County Recycling. "We are excited to get our important message out to Stingrays fans and to encourage education on other environmental issues."

For more information, contact the Charleston County Recycling and Solid Waste Department at (843) 720-7111 or visit <http://recycle.charlestoncounty.org>.