

News Release

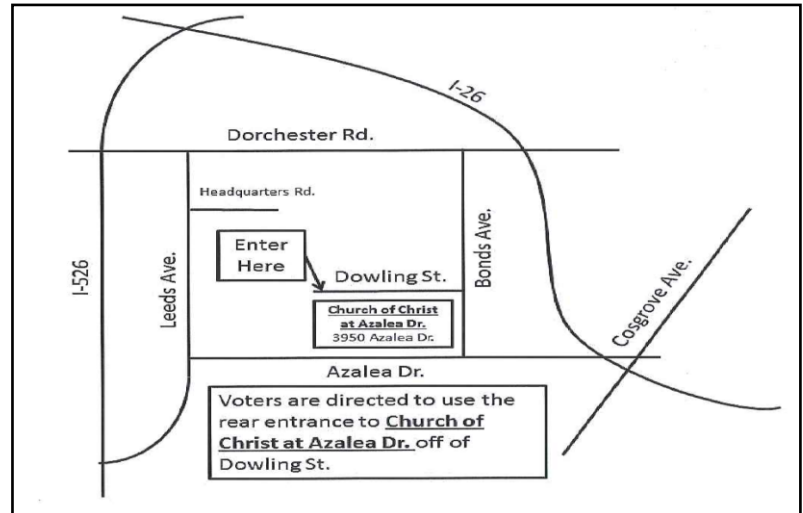

October 13, 2014
Release Number: 3835

Absentee Voting Underway in Charleston County

The Charleston County Board of Elections and Voter Registration \(BEVR\) is reminding citizens that absentee voting is available through Nov. 3. The absentee voting center is located at the Church of Christ 3950 Azalea Drive in North Charleston, S.C. Voters are asked to use the back entrance of the Church off Dowling Street.

“Absentee voting has proven to be a great asset for citizens leading up to the November election, said Executive Director of the Charleston County Board of Elections and Voter Registration Joe Debney. “If you expect to be out of town on Election Day, you can still exercise your right to vote.”

Photo ID laws are in effect for Charleston County. For more information click here.

Board of Elections & Voter Registration

The Board of Elections and Voter Registration is responsible for conducting all county, state, and federal elections that are held in Charleston County. The Board also serves as a resource for election support for Municipal Election Commissions.

The nine-member Board of Elections and Voter Registration is appointed by the Governor upon the recommendation of the Charleston County Legislative Delegation. An Executive Director is appointed by the Board to oversee the day-to-day operations of the Board of Elections and Voter Registration Office.

For information on Charleston County Government news and services, the public can:

- Visit our website: www.charlestoncounty.org

- written by Shawn Smetana -