

News Release

July 14, 2015
Release Number: 3926

Charleston County Offers Free Small Business Seminar on July 23: “What Small Businesses Should Know About Filing Taxes”

Register in advance for the free workshop at: <http://www.charlestoncounty.org/departments/procurement/workshops.php>

Charleston County Government’s Contracts and Procurement Department announces a free seminar for small business owners. It will be held from 6 p.m. - 8 p.m. on July 23, in the County’s Lonnie Hamilton, III Public Services Building located at 4045 Bridge View Drive in North Charleston, SC, 2nd floor, Room A214.

Those attending the workshop will have the opportunity to learn about:

- the importance of record keeping
- business structure for tax filing
- employee or subcontractor tax reporting requirements

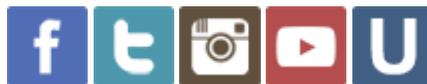

The seminar is being hosted by Charleston County Contracts and Procurement Department, Disadvantaged Business Enterprise (DBE), and Small Business Enterprise (SBE) programs. The presenter for this workshop will be Maurice White, principal owner of Maurice White Certified Public Accountant (CPA) Firm, Charleston, South Carolina.

“Charleston County continues to look for new ways to help local small business owners grow and succeed,” said Contract and Procurement Director Barrett Tolbert. “Our workshops offer important information from experts at no cost to the business owners.”

Space is limited, so those interested in attending the free workshop are encouraged to register in advance online at: <http://www.charlestoncounty.org/departments/procurement/workshops.php>

For information on Charleston County Government news and services, the public can:

- Visit our website: www.charlestoncounty.org

- Prepared by the Charleston County Public Information Office -