Customer Service Week Art Contest

About Customer Service Week

Charleston County Customer Service Recognition Week will take place October 5-9, 2015. The purpose of Customer Service Week is to celebrate 2015 National Customer Service Week, while celebrating our diverse community and providing hands-on, fun activities for the community.

About the Art Contest

The Customer Service Week Contest is designed to highlight the creative talents of Charleston County students, grades K-12, and to recognize the importance of customer service and to honor the people who serve and support customers with the highest degree of care and professionalism. The selected artwork will be displayed at the Lonnie Hamilton, III, Public Services Building in North Charleston. The theme for this year's Customer Service Week is "Everyday Heroes". Please use this theme as a focus for the creative art design/photo.

Criteria for Contest

- Students submitting artwork for this contest must be residents of Charleston County.
- Students participating in the Customer Service Week Contest must be in grade levels K - 12.
- The artwork must be the original work of the student only.
- Students may submit only one art entry for the Customer Service Week Contest.
- The image created should convey the theme of the Everyday Heroes.
- 2-D images SHOULD NOT BE LARGER than 8 1/2" x 11" in size. Any entries received that are larger than 8 1/2" x 11" will not be considered for the contest.
