PRESS RELEASE

January 26, 2018
For Immediate Release:

Suspicious Package

(James Island, SC) On January 26, 2018 shortly after 9:00 p.m., at the Circle K at 897 Folly Rd., James Island., subjects notified Charleston County Sheriff's Deputies about a jar that they located containing a liquid with a wick protruding from the lid. The subjects turned the jar over to deputies, and advised the deputies that they located the jar inside a residence. As a precautionary measure, deputies evacuated the Circle K. At this time there is no indication that the item poses an immediate threat. The Explosives Ordnance team and Detectives responded to the scene to investigate the matter.

This is an active investigation.
