CCSO offers weekly jail tours for career seekers

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Wednesday, Sept. 7, 2022

NORTH CHARLESTON, S.C. – The Charleston County Sheriff's Office is hosting weekly jail tours at the Al Cannon Detention Center for citizens interested in starting their law enforcement career as a detention deputy. Tours will be held 8-10 a.m. every Friday, and a representative with HR will be on hand to process job applications.

Applicants must be 18 years or older. A few of the benefits of working at the Charleston County Sheriff's Office include:

- Health insurance, retirement and pension benefits
- Unlimited overtime
- Ability to apply to specialized Sheriff's Office units such as SWAT Support, search and rescue, dive team, courthouse security, transport and specialized behavioral unit staffing
- Friendly atmosphere among co-workers
- Annual and sick leave
- Unlimited potential in career advancement

Those interested should plan on arriving at the Detention Center lobby at 7:45 a.m. Fridays. Please bring a South Carolina-issued ID or driver's license for a security review prior to the tour. No children or cellphones are allowed inside the facility. Tours will last approximately an hour, and a representative from HR will be available to get interested applicants started. Those who need further information can contact Capt. William White at 843-529-2384 or wwhite@charlestoncounty.org. Apply today at CCSOjobs.com!
