Man charged in 2020 Johns Island death

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Friday, Jan. 6, 2023

NORTH CHARLESTON, S.C. – Charleston County detectives on Thursday arrested a man in a 2020 shooting death on Johns Island.

Patrol deputies from the Charleston County Sheriff's Office responded shortly after 12:30 a.m. Oct. 3, 2020, to conduct a welfare check at 1041 Summerall Road. An acquaintance had reported that she had not been able to reach the resident for days.

Responding deputies forced entry and found the victim, Michael Mikula, 52, dead with an apparent gunshot wound to the head. No weapons were found nearby.

Detectives have worked over the past years to interview acquaintances and examine physical evidence collected at the scene. On Thursday, they secured a warrant for the arrest of Clyde Scott Mock on a murder charge. Mock, 54, of Ravenel, was an acquaintance of the victim's and was tied to the scene through physical evidence.

Mock was already being held at the AI Cannon Detention Center after an arrest Tuesday for contempt of family court. Detectives interviewed him Thursday and subsequently served him with the murder warrant.

For additional details, the arrest affidavit is available upon request to pio@charlestoncounty.org.
