NORTH CHARLESTON, S.C. – Charleston County detectives are investigating a shooting Thursday that injured a motorist in the Ladson area.

Deputies from the Charleston County Sheriff's Office initially responded shortly after 6 p.m. to the Scotchman gas station at Highway 78 and Von Ohsen Road, where they found the driver of a vehicle suffering gunshot wounds. The man was taken to Trident Medical Center for treatment of non-life-threatening wounds.

An initial investigation determined that the victim was driving near 10305 Highway 78, where someone in another vehicle started shooting at him. The victim reported returning fire before driving to the gas station. A juvenile male in the vehicle was unharmed.

Detectives interviewed people involved, and forensic investigators canvassed the area for evidence. No suspects or suspect vehicles have been identified. No arrests have been made.

Anyone with information can reach the Sheriff's Office at 843-202-1700 or call Crime Stoppers at 843-554-1111.
