Charleston County Sheriff's Office hosts 'Stuff the Cruiser' collection for Toys for Tots

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Monday, November 10, 2025

NORTH CHARLESTON, S.C. – The Charleston County Sheriff's Office, in partnership with the United States Marine Corps Reserve Toys for Tots Program, is thrilled to announce its 'Stuff the Cruisers' event. Every toy and dollar raised will go directly to the Charleston USMC Reserve Toys for Tots Program, helping ensure that every child in the Lowcountry feels the love and generosity of others this holiday season.

The Charleston County Sheriff's Office is deeply committed to community outreach and service, and the event is a shining example of how local law enforcement and residents can come together to make a lasting difference.

Those who wish to donate can bring new, unwrapped toys for children of all ages to the cruisers parked at Tanger Outlets this coming weekend. Monetary donations will also be accepted.

Who: The Charleston County Sheriff's Office, in partnership with the United States Marine Corps Reserve Toys for Tots Program.
