Missing Person

(James Island, SC) The Charleston County Sheriff's Office Criminal Investigations Division is asking for the public's help in locating Bruce Howard, of Fort Johnson Road.

On September 4, 2015, at 10:00 a.m., Charleston County Sheriff's Office deputies responded to 531 Fort Johnson Road to investigate a report of a missing person. According to Bruce Howard's spouse, she last seen him when he departed for work at 8:00 a.m., on September 3, 2015, and the last time he was seen by his co-workers was around 5:00 p.m. that same day. His spouse told our deputies that he never returned home and that she was concerned about his well-being.

Dorchester County Sheriff's deputies located his unoccupied Chevy Tahoe locked and parked near the entrance to Country Club Estates. Bruce Howard is described as a W/M, 6'02", 200lbs., short brown color hair, and DOB: 2/11/60. His family members are concerned about his well-being and safety. At this stage in the investigation, no evidence of foul play has been developed; however, the circumstances surrounding Bruce Howard's disappearance remains unknown.

If anyone have information or know the whereabouts of Bruce Howard please call the Charleston County Consolidated dispatch center at 843.743.7200.
