PRESS RELEASE

June 15, 2015

For Immediate Release:

10th Annual Palmetto Police Motor Skills Competition

(North Charleston, S.C.) The Charleston County Sheriff's Office will be hosting the 10th Annual Police Motorcycle training seminar on June 17 thru Saturday, June 20, 2015. This prestigious event showcases the skills and abilities it takes to operate a police motorcycle with rider safety in mind. As in years past the event is being held in parking lot E of the North Charleston Coliseum off of International Blvd. Bostic Law Firm and Low County Harley Davidson are sponsors of the event.

This year's event is expected to highlight approximately fifty riders from across the Southeast including Florida, New York, Virginia, North Carolina and South Carolina among others. Charleston County Sheriff's Office motor officers will be competing in the event as well as riders from Charleston County EMS.

Events begin with practice on Wednesday, June 17th and the competition begins with the opening ceremony at 8:00 a.m. on June 20th, Saturday, and end Saturday evening with a closing ceremony.

The public is invited and encouraged to attend this event and cheer on their favorite rider, the training is free to the public including free parking. Proceeds from the event will benefit Camp Happy Days and Carolina C.O.P.S.

Media is encouraged to attend. Captain Jim Woods (843) 693-3841 and Sgt. Burrell will be on site throughout the event and will be available for interviews.
