

Charleston County RoadWise News Release
A Program of Charleston County Government

Release Number: 2837
Release Date: November 5, 2007

See project schedule: <http://www.ccroadwise.org/file/images/folcamp707.jpg>

Public Meeting on Proposed Improvements to Folly Road and Camp Road Intersection

Public meeting on Tuesday, Nov. 13 to discuss proposed intersection turning lane improvements at Folly Road and Camp Road on James Island

Charleston County RoadWise is holding a public meeting to gather input on proposed plans to improve traffic problems where Folly and Camp Roads intersect on James Island.

The meeting will be held on Tuesday Nov. 13, from 6-8 p.m. at the James Island Charter High School (1000 Fort Johnson Road, James Island, SC 29412).

The project will be funded by the Transportation "Half-Cent" Sales Tax.

The public meeting on Nov. 13 will focus on proposed alternative designs that could address the problems with traffic congestion, turning lanes and signalization at the Folly Road and Camp Road intersection. Those attending the meeting will have an opportunity to make comments, ask questions and review conceptual designs for improvements to the intersection.

Charleston County RoadWise is the name of the Charleston County Government's management program for the construction of roads, highways, resurfacing, paving and drainage projects that are funded by the Transportation "Half-Cent" Sales Tax.

Visit the official Charleston County Transportation "Half-Cent" Sales Tax Web site www.ccroadwise.com for more information on these projects, and for public meeting notices and up-to-date news and information.