

News Release

January 30, 2014
Release Number: 3714

Charleston County Government Update

Charleston County Government offices will be open at 12:00 p.m. today

Charleston County will move to Operating Condition \(OPCON\) 5 at 12:00 p.m. today. OPCON 5 is the normal operating condition for day to day activities. The Emergency Operations Center is no longer activated.

- The Ravenel Bridge remains closed until further notice
- Charleston County would like to remind citizens to monitor local media for any updates on road and bridge conditions and to use caution while driving

Other important information:

- Charleston County Council meeting will be held tonight at 5:00 p.m.
- Charleston County Public Library branches and book drops will be open at 12:00 p.m. today.
- Charleston County recycling operation will resume this afternoon and it's expected to be back on schedule by the weekend.

For information on Charleston County Government news and services, the public can:

- Visit our website: www.charlestoncounty.org

- written by Shawn Smetana -